

**Aligned with HFA and EHS Models & Approach**

KEY POINTS

Evidence-Based Curriculum that Recognizes Families as the Experts on their Children

- Baby TALK Curriculum is a research-based & evidence-based curriculum used to support parent and family engagement prenatally through 5 years old.
- Over 400 pieces of curricula designed to promote family-child interactions and engage families in their child's learning across domains
- Over 300 pieces of curricula to support engagement and reflection on child development and topics with families
- Curriculum is available in English, Spanish, and Arabic, and in a "Visual" format with short phrases in each language

- Implemented in the US across 8 states and the District of Columbia
- Full Alignment with the HFA Curriculum Performance Standard and HFA Advantage & Reflective Strategies - alignment is built into curriculum
- Flexibility and individualization are key
- Trainees report that Baby TALK Curriculum will positively impact their work with families
- Proven effectiveness through research with diverse populations

Flexibility and Reflection are Key to the Baby TALK Approach

- There is no one way to meet each family where they are.
- The family's culture, priorities, and interests drive the agenda.
- We wonder and seek to understand the perspective of the family.
- Observation is strength-based and intentional.
- The family is the expert.

What HFA and EHS trainees have to say...

"The Baby TALK Model, Approach, and Curriculum allows me to be curious with families. It impacts how I am with families, and creates an environment built on relationship and support rather than expertise and judgment."

"I just keep thinking that this curriculum will be such a game changer in terms of how home visits are conducted. I think that it will allow for more flexibility in the FSS's eyes and, in turn, lead to a more genuine, positive, and fruitful relationship for everyone in the family. Thank you again!"

"I want to say that this has been one of the most wonderful trainings that I have ever been through. It was so great to see how the mission, values, and overall beliefs of Baby TALK complement our program so perfectly."

"Thank you, Thank you, Thank you for this program. It will complement what we are already doing so well. This is the first training I have been excited about in a long time."